San Marino, Huntington Library, HM 46015

Description: ff. 2 - Not bound. - Written in England in the second half of the thirteenth century. Leaf 2 bears the names "Richard," "Chrisostimos" and the motto "Gloria vos titillat ambos" in one or more seventeenth century English hands. The leaves were apparently once used as pastedowns in a binding to judge from the stains; however their size suggests that they were not originally part of HM 19916 from which they were removed. HM 19916 was acquired by the Huntington Library from Sotheby's, 15 June 1959, lot 205.
